JUDGE REESE AS A LAWYER!

Some Estimates of His Professional Attainments and Personal Character.

REMARKABLE UNANIMITY OF OPINION

Lending Lawyers of Opposite Political Faith Commend Him Without Reserve for Superior Ability and Undoubted Integrity.

Republicans take great pride this year in the general confidence everywhere manifested in the superior qualifications and unquestioned integrity of their candidate for supreme judge. This is especially true of the members of the legal fraternity, who are pre-eminently best situated and equipped to form an accurate estimate of his professional attainments.

In the midst of the desperate campaign of slander and falsehood being so vigorously waged upon him by those whose sole aim appears to be to mislead the people into making a majority of the supreme court popocratic, so that bereafter characteristic fusion conspiracles may receive the sanction and encouragement of the highest judicial tribunal of the state, it affords the republicans great comfort to note the unvarying confidence reposed in the uprightness and ability of Judge Reese by the members of the bar. It is noticeably among the older and abler members of the profession that the high estimate of Judge Reese's professional learning, judicial temperament and pure character is most pronounced. This estimate of him is not limited to the members of any party Inquiry discloses that among the oldest and foremost attorneys of Omaha many of those who have been and are still identified as democrats unhesitatingly attest their high appreciation of Judge Reese's auperior professional attainments and purity of charac-

A dozen attorneys in high standing who have always been recognized as democrats, when asked for an expression of their estimate of Judge Reese, spoke without hesitation in commendation of the republican candidate as a lawyer, a judge and a citizen. For political reasons a few of them do not desire to speak for publication, but not one of the leading democratic lawyers whose professional prominence has been established by long years of practice can be found entertaining any other than a notably high estimate of the character and professional attainments of Judge Reese. Some of the expressions on that subject for the supreme judgeship. Judge J. M. Woolworth-I think Judge Reese is a thoroughly good man, conscientious and honest, a man well learned in the law and of excellent judicial temperament, a man of large experience, industrious, careful and capable. He is a man who has grown a great deal since he was first elected as judge of the supreme court. It isn't like electing a man who has had no experience; it is electing a man who knows what he is about. I think he will make a most excel-lent supreme judge and I don't know of a man in this state who is better fitted.

Judge George B. Lake-I have known Judge Reese since he first settled in Plattsmouth, as you know he first lived at that place. He practiced before me when I was on the bench and I consider him a capable lawyer and an upright man. Since his election to the supreme bench years ago I have been of the opinion that his judicial course was not only able, but upright.

W. W. Morsman-I think Judge Reese an able lawyer and a conscientious man, and that the public will make no mistake in selecting him for judge of the supreme court. regard Judge Reese as a lawyer of fine attainments, a judge of experience, learning and fairness and a man thoroughly honest and trust-

ENTHUSIASTIC REPUBLICANS

Rousing Meeting is Held Under Auspices of Swedish-American League at Patterson Hall.

The meeting held at Patterson hall last night under the auspices of the Swedish-American Republican league was one of the most enthusiastic of the campaign. While the majority of those in attendance were members of the league, there were many others present. The speakers were given an ovation when they appeared and during their addresses were frequently interrupted by applause.

President Johnson explained the purposes of the league, saying that it is to foster and encourage the cause of republicanism capital for himself and at the same time and advance the interests of the party in Douglas county and Nebraska. In addressing the meeting E. J. Cornish

ANOTHER BLOW AT FUSION

Populists Said to Have Been Unfairly Treated in the Allotment.

COUNTY JUDGESHIP THEIR RIGHTFUL SHARE

Landgon Resents Silver Republicans' Action in Putting Forward Candidnte for Office Conceded to the People's Party.

Martin Langdon, nominee of the people's independent convention for county judge, wishes to make the fact clear that his nomi nation was in accordance with the arrangement made by the conference committee of the three conventions. The introduction of a silver republican into the race, he asserts, is in direct violation of that agreement and a menace to fusion. His letter bearing on the matter is as follows: OMAHA, Nov. 2.—To the Editor of The Bee: There has been from time to time a great deal said in the Omaha papers in reference to the contest over the office of county judge among the fusion forces. I ask for a short space in your paper for the purpose of explaining my position in said contest.

purpose of explaining my position in said contest.

The people's independent party assembled in convention in Omaha on August 12, 1899, and organized by selecting John O. Yeiser chairman and Prof W. W. Elliot of Elkhorn secretary. After transacting some minor business Charles E. Curtis of South Omaha was nominated as a candidate for county clerk and Mr. Williams for companissioner of the Third commissioners' district.

missioner of the Third commissioners' district.

After considerable discussion the convention adjourned until September 16 for the purpose of conferring with the democratic and silver republican parties, so as to agree upon candidates to fill the offices to be voted for at the general election on November 7. On September 16 the convention reassembled. A motion was made that a committee be appointed to notify the democratic and silver republican conventions that the people's independent convention was organized and ready for business. In accordance with the understanding generally between the people's independent, democratic and silver republican parties a conference committee was appointed by the ally between the people's independent, democratic and silver republican parties a conference committee was appointed by the chair, consisting of five members, to confer with like committees appointed from the democratic and silver republican conventions. Said committees met at the hall of the people's independent convention and, after being in session for some time, the people's independent conference committee reported to the convention that an agreement had been reached by the conference committee allowing the people's independent convention the right to nominate candidates for county clerk, county judge and coroner, which report was immediately adopted by the convention, and the convention nominated Charles E. Curtis of South Omaha for county clerk, Martin Langdon for county judge and Dr. Louis Swoboda for coroner.

Judgeship a Bone of Contention.

The other offices were divided between the democratic and silver republican parties, as agreed between said conference committees, but upon report of said committees to their respective conventions the said reports were rejected and the silver republican convention, upon motion of James W. Carr, nomininted Harry E. Burnam for county judge and reported that fact to the democratic convention, which convention did not endorse Mr. Burnam, but conceded that office to the silver republicans. The democratic convention adjourned without endorsing any candidate for the office of county judge, but transferred that duty to a central committee to arrange afterward with other committees which might be done. After the nomination of said candidate for county judge in the people's independent convention a motion was made that a court at Lincoln against Neville's name appearing as that of the democratic nominee, but the populists notified the county clerks of that political faith to disregard the injunction, which has been done.

It has just dawned upon the popocratic machine that this action is to vitlate Neville's election, should be be elected, and would afford ample cause for a republican house of representatives at Washington to unseat him.

"I tell you our fellows out there are scared," said the fusion orator, "There is no question that Secretary Porter's buill-headedness is sure to beat us out of a congressman, for the republicans will certainly unseat Neville if he is elected, having a good ground for doing zo,"

Verdict for People's Party.

On October 11 the writer filed his certificate with D. M. Haverly, county clerk of Douglas county, and subsequently the chairman and secretary of the people's independent convention and also the chairman of the people's independent convention and also the chairman of the people. It has giver republican convention filed objections, Mr. Carr appearing with his counsel and the writer appearing with his counsel. After the hearing of the evidence and argument of counsel the clerk decided that the nomination of the people's independent canvention and also the chairman of the people. It has saked the clerk that the name of Martin Langdon be not placed upon those objections, Mr. Carr appearing with his counsel. Carr Changes His Ambition.

James W. Carr had been nominated for the office of district judge of the Fourth judicial district by the silver republican convention, together with another candidate for the same office. The said silver republican convention insisted upon having two candidates for judge of the Fourth judicial district, which was rejected by the other two conventions, this causing all the trouble which occurred afterward. Mr. Carr having withdrawn as a candidate for the district bench, and in conference with the silver republican central committee, insisted that Mr. Burnam should withdraw and also the candidate nominated by the people's independent party, so that Mr. Carr should be provided with the office of county judge. Mr. Burnam withdraw, and then the three executive committees of the three central committees met and nominated Mr. Carr as a candidate for the fusion forces, claiming that a vacancy existed. This left the silver republican party with one candidate for the district bench running independently and not endorsed by either the democratic or people's independent parties.

Before me I have Mr. Carr's card claiming that he is the candidate of the people's independent party, which is unrue, and he is thus seeking to obtain votes from the people's independent party, which is unrue, and he is thus seeking to obtain votes from the people's independent party; not was he nominated by any convention, either the democratic or silver republican, but by a few members of the central committees of said parties.

The writer having been on September 16 nominated by the regularly constituted delafter, such as we will be longer to the light per publican consider that of the demonstration of the demonstrate of the such that the demonstration of the demonstrate of the such district of the facts of the facts and the control of the such district of the facts o place upon the ballot the name of James W. Carr, and also a writ of prohibition to prevent said clerk from placing the name of Martin Langdon upon the ballot for the office of county judge. This proceeding was had in the district court before Judge W. W. Keysor, and after hearing all the evidence and argument of counsel he denied the said writ, thus finding that the candidate of the people's independent party for the office of county judge was regularly nominated and entitled to have his name placed upon the ballot to be voited for an November 7.

The democratic and silver republican conventions having rejected the report of the conficerace committee, then proceeded to nominate their candidates to fill such offices as they deemed proper, regardless of the wishes of the people's independent convention, and thus the pretended resolution, which it is said the three wise central committees had found binding on the people's independent convention.

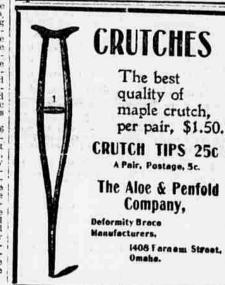

It is true that Mr. Burnam was a member of the conference committee appointed by the silver republican convention and knew as a member of said committee that it had been agreed in said conference that the people's independent party should have the three officer named, so that fusion on the county judge was rejected by the silver republicans.

It is said that they secured a promise from one of the eight that if he were the eighth man to reach the meeting, and thus the one to make the quorum, he would leave, but this arrangement for some reason was ineffectual, as the member not only stayed but voted for Latenser. One member has been absent from all meetings of late and did not count in the matter.

Two resolutions were introduced by Van Gilder, one dismissing Latenser's successor and the other reinstating Latenser. Those present and voting for the resolutions were: Buchanan, Burgess, Hayward, Irey, Moore, Thomas, Van Gilder, Penfold,
